News of Our Boys

We haven't heard much of our boys for some time now except that Jimmie Sonett went into training with the RCAF on the 19th in the hopes of helping along in the big push. In the meantime, however, that will mean one more teacher for the board of the Wainwright school division to dig up.

We wonder if some of our lads were included in that sea voyage to Sicily. We know they will do their bit no matter where they are.

RED CROSS NOTES

The V.V.W. Strawberry Plains branch, Irma Red Cross, wish to express their thanks for all who helped to make the sale of tickets on the V for Victory quilt. It was raffled at the school picnic and was won by Mrs. R. Allan. Nearly $30 was realized in the sale.

Rev. and Mrs. Longmire left this week for their holidays at Sylvan Lake.

In the account of the Junior W.A. activities in the Irma Times issue of July 9, the name Margery McLean should read Margery McKean. We wish to make this correction in view of the fact that clippings from the Times usually reach Margery's parents in England who are naturally interested in their children's achievements, especially when they are so far from home.

Farm women have you realized yet how much the Union needs you, without you, Ladies, the Union is only little more efficient than an army of soldiers, each carrying a gun, but no ammunition. We have thousands of farmers in this union, they are joining by the scores. I'm convinced you'll never be sorry for joining. We are really wanting to better conditions in the agricultural industry and you can do so much to help us achieve that end by joining now. Don't wait for your neighbor, you be first this time. Think how much responsibility rests on your shoulders as a woman, a mother maybe, or a wife, to see that your children should be delivered of the burdens we must bear today. Their fathers and brothers are fighting for just that. Surely our women are going to do their share. You surely know that unions will really be needed after this war is over, and the stronger our farm union is the better for us, as well as the boys and girls that will return to Canada with the signing of peace.

Please try to remember, the more there are working with a common objective the more likely it is that the objective will be attained.

There is none who is as vitally interested in the agricultural policies as the farmer. Since his living depends on agriculture, any change in the policy affecting agriculture affects the industry by which he makes his living.

The Alberta Farmers' Union grew out of the need for a regulating influence upon the marketing of the production of the farm. By this regulating influence farmers have gained for themselves many improvements in hog prices, etc., and your executive is still striving to make things better for you.

But this is not enough, in order to get parity instead of charity every member of this union must try to increase the membership of the union by at least one member.

Thousands of farmers have seen the need for taking a greater part in the formulation of agricultural policies. They have realized that they, better than anyone else, are in a position to know what policies are best suited to the needs of the agricultural industry.

The fact demonstrates the need for an organization of farmers and the farm women to represent the entire farming industry, all working toward a common objective—Mrs. J. Geddes in A.F.U. Bulletin. "Food for Victory."

Calgary, Alta., July 20—When Capt. M. B. The overall time from Manchester garden to Calgary parlor was less than 48 hours.

Harvest Help for Farmers

I have just returned from a long trip to the various provinces of eastern Canada, looking around for other things, into the needs of eastern farmers for prairie grains.

The late spring and the heavy rains delayed seedings in the eastern provinces, indeed conditions were not ideal in many places at all. There will, therefore, be heavy demands this coming fall and winter for western grains, particularly for oats and barley.

It would be a patriotic duty for the west to try to harvest every single acre sown to crops, to save every single bushel of grain. But labor is now very short both in the east and in the west. It would be of invaluable help to our farmers, and to the war effort of Canada and the United Nations, therefore, if the residents of towns, villages and hamlets in the prairie provinces would take some time off this coming harvest season and make their services available to our prairie farmers to help to gather in safely this most important coming crop. This would enable our eastern farmers to produce more precious bacon and other food products that could be shipped to Britain and to the Armed Forces overseas, which products are certainly badly needed for the coming important military operations.

B.C. TO USE MOTOR FUNDS FOR ROADS

Plans of the B.C. government to spend $6,000,000 on the construction of a highway from Prince George to link with the Alaska highway have renewed demands in Alberta that motor revenues be used for road purposes.

The coast government's move is interpreted by officials of the Alberta Motor Association to mean that that province has decided that motor revenues should quite properly be used to improve the roads used by car drivers that produce these revenues, and particularly for new projects.

The adoption of just that policy has been advocated over a long period by the A.M.A.

It has been estimated that Alberta's surplus revenues from motor vehicle and gasoline taxes, over and above what has been spent on roads, amounts to about $10,000,000. Consequently there is a strong feeling that the province should increase its highway expenditures, providing that men and materials are available under war-time conditions. In the alternative, the surplus funds could be used for the purchase of dominion war bonds, which would create a reserve fund that could be used for highways when the war is over.

Inter-Empire Support

SINCE THE BEGINNING OF THE WAR and for a number of years previous to that time, persistent efforts have been made by the Axis powers to spread the impression that the British Empire is about to disintegrate because of internal dissension. The speed with which all the colonies of the Empire joined with the Mother Country when war was declared in 1939, was ample proof of the false nature of these claims, yet they have continued from time to time in utterances based either on enemy propaganda or on misinformation. The part played by Canada, South Africa, Australia and New Zealand and other parts of the Empire in naval, air and military operations of the war is well known, and their importance is recognized. There are, however, many parts of the Empire, including the Colonies, who have made notable contributions about which we have heard little or nothing, and the British Ministry of Information has recently published some very interesting facts in this connection.

Much Monetary Support Given

We are told that in addition to the support of their own local military forces, members of the British Colonial Empire have contributed over $100,000,000 in voluntary gifts towards the prosecution of the war. In Ceylon, $3,350,000 has been contributed to war funds, and in addition $1,650,000 has been voted by the Ceylon State Council for the same purpose. In recognition of the latter contribution there is a Ceylon squadron of Halifax bombers in the Royal Air Force. The people of British East Africa have subscribed more than $13,000,000 for war bonds, and in Tanganyika a war savings campaign, which commenced with an objective of $2,200,000 was quickly over-subscribed and this figure has since been doubled. In Trinidad, investors in one week purchased more than $37,000 worth of war savings certificates, and the Trinidad Bomber Fund had given more than $900,000 for the purchase of a bomber before March, 1943. It is known that loans totalling more than $30,000,000 have been given to the British Government by the governments of the colonies and by private individuals residing there. In addition to this, Colonial Governments are paying the interest on loans raised within the colonies, and lent to the British government free of interest.

Inter-Empire Help Generous

Apart from the financial help which the colonies are giving to the Empire war effort, it is interesting to note that many parts of the Empire are assisting each other in carrying on vital tasks during these critical times. In spite of wartime restrictions, Britain is finding it possible to send machinery to Kenya, Northern Rhodesia, East Africa, British Guiana and other colonies to assist with the total mobilization of their natural resources. For a food production drive in Kenya, Canada is producing 150 plows and this is only one of many examples of Inter-Empire help which goes on all the time. The volume of the voluntary help which is coming from the smaller colonies when the future of the Empire is at stake, does not show a desire on their part to end the present system, or evidence any dissatisfaction in their relations with His Majesty's government. If the Axis nations were to fully comprehend these facts and figures, they would cease to count on the hope of disintegration from within as an aid to their efforts to break down the Empire. Prime Minister Churchill has many times referred to the staunch loyalty with which the Empire has joined to support the prosecution of the war, and doubtless these are some of the facts on which he has based his confidence.

HEALTH LEAGUE OF CANADA THE USE OF NATIVE GREENS

We know that we should eat as many leafy vegetables—fresh if possible—as we can in the summer and it is easy to do just this. Most of us eat lettuce, tomatoes, and celery and consider that we have eaten a sufficient amount of fresh vegetables. But this is not true. Lettuce and celery have very low vitamin and mineral content, so we would be wise if we altered our summer menus this year. Green peppers, parsley, dandelion greens, water cress could all be used; chopped and added to a salad, they are all good sources of vitamin A and C. Instead of eating spinach this summer, why don't you try the fresh green leaves of your turnip plants. They are an excellent source of vitamin C and have a good flavour. I know some of you have been eating beet tops, but now when you are growing your own vegetables practically all of you can have beet tops fresh and crisp from your garden instead of wilted as they usually are in the store. To show you how valuable these native greens are to your diet I am giving you a table with the content of vitamin C and A and iron an average serving contains:

	Vitamin A	Fe	International	Thiamin	Riboflavin	Vit. C
	Mg.	Units	Mg.	Mg.	Mg.	Mg.
Turnip greens.....	2.0	14822	12	135
Green peppers.....	22	953	.09	101
Chard.....	8.0	28222	.24	40.2
Kale.....	7	4009	.06
Spinach.....	2.0	4566	.06	.09	43
Beet Greens.....						5
Lettuce.....	2	702	.02

Compare the top six vegetables with the conventionally used lettuce and celery.

These figures are for the vegetables in the fresh state. Nutritional value of cooked vegetables depends on the method used for cooking.

When you cook leafy vegetables use a little boiling water and boil for as short a time as possible to retain the maximum amount of the vitamins and minerals. Always remember to save the cooking water as it has the vitamins and minerals that have dissolved out of the vegetables.

A post card request to the Western Division Health League of Canada, 111 Avenue Road, Toronto, will bring you a free copy of its authoritative vitamin chart.

CONSTITUTION REFORM

A post-war program in Canada is impossible without constitutional reform, Premier Stuart S. Garson told delegates to a conference on world missions at Winnipeg. He said the St. Louis report could provide the necessary foundation for post-war reforms.

Much To Remember

Men Travelling After War Would Find Army Guidebooks Valuable

A great many of the lads who have been to the far corners of the earth in this global war say that once they get their feet planted in the old home town after the big scrap is over they won't do any more travelling. But a lot of them, having realized how much there is to the world, will want to see it again as civilians.

The more adventurous, who will hit for Africa deserts or sub-Arctic snows, will do well to remember useful information contained in army guidebooks. One of them, for example, points out that polar bears' livers are poisonous, a diet of rabbit will lead to death through "rabbit starvation," but seal hearts and kidneys and broiled reindeer moss are edible. —Kitchener Record.

Could Be Harmful

Care Should Be Taken, When Sulfa Drugs Are Used

According to a recent summary compiled by veterinary authorities, the various sulfa drugs which have proved a boon in saving human lives are also saving the lives of farm animals. For example, sulfaguanidine has been found helpful in the treatment of certain types of coccidiosis in poultry, and in calf scour, and also in calf diptheria. Sulfaguanidine is likewise being used in dealing with coccidial infection in sheep, and in certain cases of enteritis in swine. The sulfa drugs are still too new for all their possibilities and values to be known but there is no question they point the way in veterinary science. However, the Veterinary Director General of Canada points out that sulfa drugs unless used carefully are dangerous and on no account must be used unless under veterinary advice and supervision.

SMILE AWHILE

"Can you recommend the company with which you are insured against accidents?"
"Rather! I have been insured ten years and never had an accident."

"Little Betty was dressed in a bathing suit and taken into the water for the first time. Soon her voice was heard:
"Mother, is this thing supposed to be keeping me dry? 'cause it isn't a bit."

"I want a word of advice," the young man remarked to his uncle.
"Well?" said Uncle tersely.

"What is the best way to approach you for a loan?"
"If you are sensitive," replied Uncle firmly, "you had better write for it. Then when you get my reply, just tear it up without reading it."

"Personally I never stay out late at night."
"Why? don't late hours agree with you?"

"No, no, no; it's not the late hours that upset me, so much as the excitement when I get home!"

"He said he would lay the earth at my feet," said the sentimental daughter.

"Yes," answered her experienced mother, "it sounds good, but it is not practical. You already have the earth at your feet. What you really need is a house over your head!"

Doctor—Then why do you not make a point of going out with her yourself?

Mose, charged with theft, was on the witness stand, and the judge sought to discover if he knew the value of an oath. He said:

"Mose, if you tell a lie under oath, do you know what happens?"
Mose said: "Yaashu, Judge. I goes to hell."

"And if you tell the truth?" persisted the judge.

"I goes to jail," said Mose.

"What are you doing here, dear?"
"Looking for a husband."

"But you've got one!"
"That's the one I'm looking for."

"Hey, you've got my chin."

A GIANT CAMERA

The New York Times says the largest camera of its kind in the country is in the photocopy department of the Bell Telephone Laboratories. It makes as many as 800 negatives a day. A 3 1/2 by six foot negative can be made as easily and quickly as an 8 by 10. The camera is so large that the photographer works inside of it—in complete darkness except for a dim red light.

THE RIGHT STUFF

This, too, is the spirit of victory. Left alone on his farm in Bertie township, near Fort Erie, Ont., without any help when his grandson, Howard Reuben Noyes, departed for Toronto to join the R.C.A.F., George F. House, who is 86, will do his farming himself and attempt to raise much-needed crops, as his contribution to the battle against Hitlerism.

Jack Minor And Granddaughter Honored

As a tribute to Jack Minor, the Canadian Naturalist and his work, the senate of Alma College, St. Thomas, Ont., at no expense to Jack Minor, at a recent meeting created what is and will be known for years to come as The Jack Minor Scholarship. In announcing The Jack Minor Scholarship, Dr. P. S. Dobson, the principal of the school, also announced that Wilhelmina Conklin Miner, Jack Minor's only granddaughter, was the first recipient of this award. Wilhelmina is the granddaughter of Jack Minor and only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Manly F. Miner of Kingsville, Ontario. Alma College, a boarding school for teen age girls, is one of the oldest ladies' schools in Canada where many outstanding women of the world have received their education.

A New Strategy

Japan's Former Ambassador To Washington Sees Way To Victory

Admiral Nomura, Japan's pre-Pearl Harbor Ambassador to Washington, offers the peoples of the Axis an assurance of victory that has at least the advantage of novelty. He says they do not have to attack any more. To win now they have only "to hold out in conquered positions."

In the case of Italy, to which the admiral's remarks are especially addressed, there happen to be no more conquered positions to hold out from. But the Germans have been experimenting exclusively in holding out for the past eight months. They have not done well with this strategy at Stalingrad, or at Rostov, or at Kursk, or in Tunisia. Japan's experience in holding out is even longer. Battles in the Coral Sea, at Midway around the Solomons and in the Bismarck Sea have already held out a sizable part of the Japanese Navy. Guadalcanal, Papua and Attu have provided additional lessons in holding out in conquered positions. In this succession of defeats Admiral Nomura proposes to see a brand-new road to victory.—New York Times.

Unpatriotic Evasion

Damaged Parcels Show Postal Rules Not Observed

A complete layette for an infant was found recently in a personal parcel addressed to a soldier overseas. Other parcels have revealed such things as silk stockings, powder puffs, hairpins, cosmetics and nail polish. These articles were found when damaged parcels were being repacked by the Canadian Postal Corps. This contravention of regulations may result in the modification or withdrawal of privileges extended by the British Administration to Canadian Armed Services overseas, according to postal authorities. The reduced rate of 12 cents per pound, the weight proviso of 11 pounds and the duty-free entry of parcels is permitted by the British government only for parcels containing gifts for the personal use and consumption of members of the forces. Civilians attempting to evade customs duty and full postage by sending goods for civilians in soldiers' parcels are committing an unpatriotic act and jeopardizing the special privileges now in operation.

Crop Report

BANK OF MONTREAL
CROP REPORT No. 5

Crop prospects are promising in Manitoba and satisfactory in most areas of Alberta and Saskatchewan. High temperatures throughout the prairie provinces during the past week have promoted rapid growth. Wheat is mostly in shot blade and heading is becoming general in some districts. Moisture conditions are satisfactory throughout Manitoba, but rain would be welcome over most of Alberta and Saskatchewan and is urgently required in some districts. Sugar beets are making fair progress in Alberta and good progress in Manitoba. In the province of Quebec, recent warm weather has stimulated growth and progress is satisfactory, except in low-lying areas where there has been damage from excessive moisture. Harvesting of an excellent hay crop is in progress. Pastures continue in very good condition. Corn and root crops show good growth, except in low lands where damage is reported. Moisture is ample and continued warm weather would be beneficial. In Ontario, crops generally continue to make satisfactory progress under favorable weather conditions, although rains would be welcome in some areas. Fall wheat is ripening rapidly and cutting will be under way within the next few days. Prospects for spring grains vary considerably and total yields will be below average. Corn and roots are showing good growth. In the maritime provinces, heavy rains in most districts have caused some damage and, while warm weather has been beneficial, all crops are about two weeks late. In British Columbia, crops generally are improving with somewhat warmer weather. Most tree fruits have had a heavy drop and yields will be light. Picking of cane fruits has commenced and a fair yield is indicated. Field crops are now making good growth.

ALBERTA—Warm weather has forced rapid growth and wheat is heading out over large areas. In west-central and northern districts crops are developing satisfactorily. Part of the east-central area needs rain and lack of moisture continues in the south where serious deterioration has occurred. Hail damage has been light. Sugar beet crops are making fair progress. SASKATCHEWAN—Crops in districts where moisture is satisfactory are making good progress. Generous rains would be welcome. The dry area along the south-western border is spreading and crops in the central and north-central sections are beginning to show signs of deterioration. Slight damage from hail and high winds has occurred in scattered areas. Pest damage is small.

MANITOBA—Crop conditions are promising. High temperatures and timely rains during the past week have promoted rapid growth. Moisture reserves are satisfactory. All crops show an even, healthy stand and wheat is heading out well. Pastures and hay crops are in excellent condition. Sugar beets are progressing favorably.

They're Headin' For Bruce July 28th

The event that hundreds of people look forward to during the summer is the Bruce Stampede, one of the oldest established institutions of its kind. This year the date is Wednesday, July 28, just a few days before the harvest work begins. It's the place where country folks gather from far and near to talk over the events of the season and enjoy the rough and ready sports so characteristic of western Canada.

Stampede events include mighty good prizes for saddle riding, loose rope, wild horse, colt decorating, wild cow milking, calf roping, steer and slick riding and other arena events. Horse racing has not been overlooked either by the Stampede Association. Included in the racing program are free-for-all, cowboy race, ladies' race and pony race with handsome purses for the winners.

Net proceeds go to war charities so any money you spend at Bruce on July 28 goes to a worthy cause. A big dance at night in the Bruce community hall will top off the day's doings. Henry Owens, Gus Lentz and Jack Parfett are the committee in charge and they have good committees working to see that you will be well looked after on the grounds.

ODE TO A DIEPPE RAIDER

It was the nineteenth day of August in the year of forty-two. The day was bright and cloudless, The channel it was blue.

It was early in the morning Of this all eventful day, That the Canadian Commandos Were chosen to sail away.

They picked a town called Dieppe, On France's rugged shores. But the Jerries saw them coming By scores and scores and scores.

They hurried down to meet them, And filled the air with lead, But the Canadian boys ne'er faltered, They raced faster on instead.

It was a bloody battle And the Jerries learned quite well That the Canadians were "terrors" With grenade, shot and shell.

They left the shores of Dieppe Less by quite a few, But the Jerry forces suffered A lot of casualties too.

They landed back in England, A grim and grimy sight, But they'd taught the bloody Jerry To fear Canadian might.

And sometime soon again we'll

Where our comrades led before Just a little piece of Jerry's land That rocky Dieppe shore.

SOLDIER of the SOIL

THIS year the Canadian Farmer urgently needs help. He needs your help to produce the food so necessary for victory. Many thousands of farm workers are serving in the Forces, so that the farmer—the Soldier of the Soil—is short-handed, but short-handed as he is, he is called upon to produce more food than ever before. Food is one of the most powerful weapons of war. Grains, bacon, dairy products, eggs, beef, fruit, vegetables—FOOD to feed our armies, our allies and our people we must have.

WHAT CAN YOU DO?

You may be a school teacher, student, business or professional man, an office or store clerk—no matter what you are, if you have a few hours, days, weeks, or months of free time this summer, you can do your country and the farmer a great and patriotic service by helping out on the farm. You may be inexperienced, but you still can help. You will find work on the farm healthy and congenial. It will give you the satisfaction of feeling that you have brought Victory nearer.

What you should do NOW!

Consult any special local committee or office established to deal with farm labour placements in your city or town; or Write the Director of the Dominion-Provincial Farm Labour Program at the Capital of your province; or Get in touch with your nearest Employment and Selective Service Office.
